Doylestown Presbyterian Church invites you to join a Growth Group

There is something for everyone!

These groups were formed with the mission of creating and sustaining small groups within the church for people to gather together based on similar needs, stages in life, and common interests. Growth groups help people grow spiritually by developing a support network based on their faith. We learn, ask questions, pray, socialize, and meet Jesus together in church rooms, homes and other locations. You can sign up for a 5 to 8 week session with a specific group, depending on your interests. Groups are limited to 10-12 individuals, with some groups specifying their demographic (men, women, young adults, couples, etc.). Enrollment takes place on a first-come, first-served basis.

Groups begin the week of June 3
unless otherwise noted

GROUP 1, For Everyone — Journey With Christ, Part 1: Becoming Intentional
Led by Dick Cornelius & Wayne Senft in AH-209

Sundays, June 3-August 5, 10:45 am—12:15 pm (no meeting 6/10 & 6/24)

The stated goal of Journey with Christ is “to strengthen your relationship with God by deepening Christ-likeness in your life.” The curriculum provides an intentional pathway for spiritual growth and development with opportunities to move from focusing on your own spiritual growth to becoming equipped to encourage others to strengthen their discipleship. This is a journey for anyone, regardless of faith background, that will involve intersecting with God and growing in faith.

GROUP 2, For Everyone — Hallelujah, Anyway by Annie Lamott

Led by Janet Roberto and Lola Cooley in Janet Roberto’s home

Mondays, June 4-July 30, 7-8:30 pm (no meeting July 2)

The review from the Washington Post describes Annie Lamott's new book, “Hallelujah Anyway,” as a slim manual on faith. Much like her 2012 book “Help, Thanks, Wow,” it mixes theology and psychology with personal grievances and life stories. Organized into nine chapter-like essays around a loose concept Lamott calls “mercy,” the book is peppered with cryptic spiritual takeaways like, “Maybe mercy and grace belong together, like cream and sugar.” We’re all struggling, everyday sinners, she appears to be saying with “Hallelujah Anyway.” We’re frail and ill-behaved and often unattractive. Relax, my friend. Let’s just cut each other some slack.” - Come join us as we explore the mercy of God through the lens of a gifted writer.

GROUP 3, For Parents — Future Family by Andy Stanley

Led by Jenny Baker and Julie Toner in AH-203

Mondays, June 4-July 16, 7-8:30 pm

Whether you're starting a new family, leaving an old one, or wondering if it's worth the effort at all, this message series will provide you with direction and hope! In this six-session, video-based study, Andy Stanley will help you decide what you want your family's future to look like and help you plan how to get there! There is also a study guide which goes along with the videos.

Spend a few summer evenings exploring the teenage brain. Neuroscientist and parent, Frances Jensen "explores adolescent brain functioning and development in the context of learning and multitasking, stress and memory, sleep, addiction, and decision making. This conversation will not only help you better understand teenagers, it may also change your mind.

GROUP 5, For Everyone — A Bigger Table by John Pavlovitz

Led by Keith Roberts in AH-211

Wednesdays, June 13-July 18, 7-8:15 pm (no meeting July 4)

What does it look like to love boldly as did Jesus, in a world that is a polarized mess? How can the church offer radical hospitality, as our Lord did? What kind of community is Jesus inviting us to create? Let’s discuss the warts and wonders of church life.

GROUP 6, For Women — *Jonah with a Twist

Led by Ann Petro and Linay Richards in Ann Petro’s home

Thursdays, June 21-August 9, 7:30-8:30 pm (no meeting July 5 & July 12)

Join us for a Bible study on Jonah with a little twist. We will also learn how to make Chrismons for your Christmas Tree using counted-cross stitch. We will have 6 study sessions with 6 different Chrismons kits. Cost is $20 which includes the study book and the Chrismon kits.
